To Whom It May Concern,

Scott Hopkins of Superfit Shopfitting has fitted out a number of Terry White Chemists for the Group and for Terry and myself personally.

Scott took on a huge project in fitting out the 1800sqm Terry White Chemists at Knox City [in 2003] which was the first of our new Evolution stores designed in conjunction with well known graphic designer, Ken Cato.

Terry White Chemists Knox City, Melbourne, lifted the benchmark for pharmacy shopfit around Australia and included a Medical centre and Spa. Since then, Scott has completed Kawana Waters Shopping World (over twenty years Scott has led its refit three times) and the Terry White Chemists at North Lakes.

Scott is detailed and responsive to every request in a timely manner that demonstrates his thorough understanding of Pharmacy and how it operates.

I wish Scott every success in his Endeavour's.
